Q Numb. 410

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, Auguſt 10 1703

From the Harlem Courant, dated Auguſt 14.

Vienna, Auguſt 1.

'TIS talk'd here with great Aſſurance, that the Alliance with the Duke of Savoy is fully concluded; and we are in hopes the Republick of Venice will ſoon follow his Royal Highneſſes Example. The Rebels in Hungary grow daily more numerous, and have taken Little Waradin: 'Tis ſaid Prince Ragozzi has iſſued out circular Letters to invite the Hungarians to come in to him; Mean time ſome Raſcians, Huſſars and Heydukes, are order'd to reinforce the Regiment of Montecuculi; and a Detachment of Horſe of the Troops of Tranſilvania will joyn them; in order to ſtifle this Rebellion.

From the Imperial Army encamp'd at Haunſheim, Aug. 4. On the 27th an Expreſs came hither from the Body commanded by the Count de la Tour, with Advice, that on the 21ſt a Detachment of the French conſiſting of 4000 Horſe and 1800 Foot, march'd in the Night from Ulm to Wiplington on the Iller, and paſs'd the Bridge there: The ſame day the Count de la Tour ſent out 4 ſeveral Parties of 15 Men each, 3 of which return'd and gave no account of the Enemy, but the 4th reported, that the French had paſs'd the Iller and were moving towards the Body of Troops commanded by the Count de la Tour; hereupon the Count order'd the Baggage to be carried over the River, and drew out his Men on a riſing ground near Minderkingen, there to receive the Enemy. A Fight enſued, and Count de la Tour obſerving that the Enemy's Left endeavour'd to get between him and the Danube, he drew back to that River and retir'd in good order over it. Our loſs in this Action is reckon'd to be 200 Men: But of the Enemy 500 were kill'd or wounded, the Officer that commanded them in chief being among them. The ſame day the Prince of Anhalt Deſſau arriv'd in the Camp of the Margrave of Bareith: and ſome Regiments of Horſe were order'd to march to reinforce the Count de la Tour.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Auguſt 14.

From the Camp at Haunſheim, Auguſt 4. In the Action that happen'd on the 31ſt paſt between a Detachment of the French and a Party of Imperialiſts commanded by Count de la Tour, 300 were kill'd or wounded on our ſide; among the firſt, Prince Chriſtian of Hanover, (whoſe Body being taken up out of the Danube, it appear'd he had receiv'd 2 Wounds in his Head,) the Captains Banaire and Behr of a Hanover Regiment, 2 other Captains, and 2 Lieutenants. The 6000 Pruſſians commanded by the Prince of Anhalt Deſſau are arriv'd here.

Dreſden, Auguſt 8. An Officer who was in the Fight at Minderkingen, has written hither, That the loſs was pretty equal on both ſides, and that of the Imperialiſts 6 or 700 were kill'd. The Elector of Bavaria was expected back at Munich on the 2d of this Month.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Auguſt 14,

Frankfort, Aug. 9. The Army commanded by the Duke of Burgundy is encamp'd at Lichtenau on this ſide the Rhine within 2 Leagues of the Lines of Stolhoffen. The Enemy has yet done nothing but forrag'd in the Neighbourhood of Biel and Stolhoffen. The Lines are in a very good State of Defence. The French had above 100 Officers kill'd in the Action at Minderkingen, among them the Marqueſs du Heron late Envoy of France in Poland. Prince Lewis of Baden has diſpatch'd an Expreſs to the Elector of Mentz to acquaint him that the Elector of Bavaria is driven clear out of Tyrol by the Imperialiſts and the Peaſants. There is a talk that the King of the Romans will ſpeedily put himſelf at the Head of the Army now commanded by the Prince of Baden, to put in Execution the Deſigns projected againſt the Elector of Bavaria, and the Marſhal de Villars. The Diſtricts of the Hontſrug, Creutznach, Stromberg, Simmeren and Bacherach, have ſent Deputies to Saar Louis and Traerbach to agree with the French on Contributions.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Auguſt 14.

Hanover, Aug. 10. On the 7th our Elector receiv'd Advice by an Expreſs from his Brother Duke Maximilian, that his other Brother Duke Chriſtian was loſt in the Danube. 'Tis taken notice of as a thing very remarkable, that 3 ſeveral Princes of the Houſe of Hanover have within a few Years periſh'd in the Danube, and were each ſent out with weak Detachments of Imperial Troops.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Auguſt 14.

Some Advices from Niſmes of the 23d paſt, that came through a Neutral Country, ſay, That there has been a Skirmiſh lately between a Detachment of the King's Troops and the Malecontents of the Sevennes; in which the Royaliſts were beaten, 400 of them were kill'd, and the Malecontents loſt but 150. Theſe Letters add, that their Number increaſes daily; and that the Marſhal de Montrevel ſeeing little likelihood of reducing them, has offer'd them, if they will lay down their Arms, the Liberty of retiring with their Families whither they ſhall think fit; but they have rejected this propoſal.

Coningsberg, July 27, Letters from the King of Swedens Camp before Thorn tells us that his Swediſh Majeſty is reſolved to continue the War with vigour; and that they had certain advice, that ſeveral Poliſh Lords were gone to Breſlau in Sileſia, to confer with Prince Alexander Sobieskie on the preſent ſtate of affairs, and 'twas whiſper'd about in the Camp that the King of Sweden himſelf was gone thither incognito to make a viſit to that Prince.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Auguſt 14.

Cologne, Auguſt 10. Four great Mortars and a great quantity of Bombs are carried from Minden under a Convoy of 200 Men to the Blockade of Gelder, to be employ'd in Bombarding that Place, which Bombardment is reſolv'd to be begun on the 26th of this Month.

London, August 10. They write from Edinburg, That some Dutch Fishing Busses came into Leith Road, on the First of this Month, after a second Chase by the French, who have taken 3 of their Convoy and destroy'd about 70 of the Busses, the rest made their way the best they could, leaving some of their Nets behind. The Enemy set the Officers and wounded Crew of the Dutch Men of War ashore.
